Hedgefonder – ett slitet uttryck

Jag sitter och läser på ekonomitidningarnas nätsajter som skriver om hur olika fonder har klarat sommarens berg-och-dalbana på världens aktiemarknader. Och i vanlig ordning fokuseras rapporteringen på de fonder som klarat börsturbulensen sämst. Varför är det alltid misslyckanden som ska lyftas fram framför framgångar? I en artikel med rubriken "Sveriges sämsta fonder" utser de en hedgefond till årets bottenapp. Nu ska man kanske inte döma den skyldiga efter vad man gjort det senaste halvåret. Förra året hyllades samma fond av nämnda tidning eftersom den då var som en riktig raket hedgefond. Man kan alltid fundera på hur lång tid det bör ta innan det är dags att ropa fiasco, men man kan även fundera på hur det står till med definitionen hedgefonder. I min sinnevärld är en hedgefond en trygg och stabil fond, som klarar av att leverera en positiv avkastning oavsett hur klimatet är på börsen. Avkastningen på hedgefond kanske inte är så att man tappar hakan, men den levererar och det är det som är meningen. Och den har en riktigt låg risk, ofta kanske risken mätt som det statistiska måttet standardavvikelse vara så låg som en obligationsfond. Men hedgefonden ska på lite sikt leverera en högre avkastning.

Allan Heinberg on "What I Am"

So, here's the thing: you people terrify me. You're passionate, you're insightful, you're bravely outspoken. You know Grey's Anatomy and its characters better than anyone, except maybe Shonda Rhimes. And I don't know if you realize this, but the way you write about the show, debate it, love and/or hate it carries an enormous amount of weight in the Writers Room.

All of which makes the experience of blogging here for the first time absolutely terrifying.

Social Media at the Consumer Forum

Here's a quick overview on how you can stay connected to the Forrester Consumer Forum, which starts next week.

Blogging. We welcome guest bloggers Duch Thib and Julie Fletcher, along with Accounting.org and iag. You can always come to the site but why not have updates delivered to a screen near you?

Microblogging. Follow Forrester on Twitter and we'll follow you too.

Social Networking. We have an event page on Facebook and a small, forward-thinking community forming there.

Online video. GBRANDT will be on site shooting interviews - and they have a pretty cool site, too.

Did I miss anything? Obviously these tools are quite worthless until we actually get the conversation started - looking forward to engaging with you next week, in person and/or online.

A banking CEO that's willing to blog

When I posed the question "Does blogging matter to you?" in a recent email, I was pleasantly surprised to find the answer for many people is yes.

That particular email's link to The Better Banking Blog generated a record number of clickthroughs and our blogwatch section has also proved popular - well beyond our expectations.

Online Banking Review first wrote about blogging and banking in 2004, but I think it's fair to say blogging has now gone mainstream. In the current issue's feature on Web 2.0, Hothouse founding partner Simon van Wyk says "Anyone who runs a business needs to run a blog."
